

AFTER FIVE DAYS RETURN TO

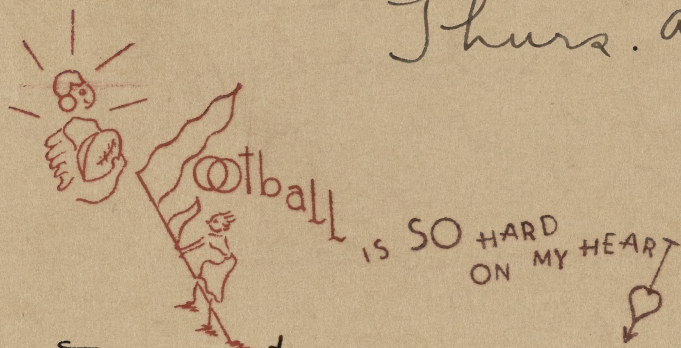

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA

Miss Joe Ann Inane,
A & M. College,
Stillwater,
Okla.
Millard Hall
Room 360

Thurs. afternoon.

My Dear Joe: -

Well what do you think of your old mother acting like I did over phone. I don't know what the matter was - just couldn't get hold of myself. hope you didn't feel worse after calling & was tickled ~~for~~ ^{it} did seem so good to hear your voice. Just finished cleaning my bed room. took curtains down & moved everything around - also made cup cakes wish you had some.

Imagine I will clip you to death as every time I read an item I think I might interest you I cut it out. Is this Mary Martha's daddy. In telephone book he is listed Dwight J. Mitchell.

Honey, always send your laundry Sat. morning & it will be delivered to me Sunday
so will be here when Albert
is. also you can send blbs for .25 so you might as well send everything, at least try it once & see if you can't get it all in for that price.
I mean your sheets & pillow case.

How are your shoes? If they don't fit send them back with laundry. Personally
I don't like them on your feet makes one look like they had Clab feet & too I don't see them advertised anymore.
so don't think they went over
too big.

you spoke of coming home with Elliott. How would she go back?

I had to laugh when you said they were going to take your pictures without any clothes on. Silly didn't you know someone was just having fun with you.

trying to frighten you.

When you find time
write Betty Shumaker.

I haven't been to town since you left. Have in mind getting you a flag pin when I do. Send your beads & rivets have clasp fixed.

Did Dorothy tell you they weren't allowed to wear sash pins to school
& anyone can be a Comet that wants to. She has that old empytago on

however you spell it
on the end of two fingers & she can't type or scarcely write.

Hope I get to see you soon.

Have you seen Harriett Spangler? She doesn't get to come home tho does she?

Bye for now -
Mother.

or manager of the year gets a prize. Last year Joe McCarthy was the lucky fellow and he got from me a request for two good box seats for the opening game of the world series. If Vitt wins the pennant this year he will get from me even a better prize—a request for three tickets.

But whether he wins it or not, I would like to say—

An Oscar for Oscar.

Liquor Permit Case Is First In Court Here

The first case ever to be tried in a federal court in the western district of Oklahoma on the state's liquor permit law, will be heard by Edgar S. Vaught, United States judge, Wednesday morning.

The case involves Tolan D. Mitchell, 41-year-old Oklahoma City man charged with hauling 25 cases of liquor into the state by automobile.

Laynie Harrod, Mitchell's attorney, appeared before Judge Vaught Tuesday night, and suggested he might enter a guilty plea for his client, if he could know in advance what disposition the judge would make of the case.

Judge Vaught told Harrod he would not commit himself until he had heard all the evidence, and Charles E. Dierker, federal district attorney, spiked the guilty plea by saying he would ask for the maximum penalty to be imposed.

"Mitchell is one of the cleverest liquor dealers in Oklahoma," Dierker told the court, "and I think the court should hear all the evidence in this case."

Harrod pointed out Mitchell has been given a sentence of four months and $500 fine in Fort Smith, Ark., the sentence to run concurrently with any sentence Mitchell might get in federal court in Muskogee, where he has a liquor trial coming up.

The liquor permit law went into effect more than a year ago, but no case has been tried in the court here. The act makes it a federal offense to import liquor into a dry state without a state permit.
